Sunday, March 31st at 11:00 am, we will observe Khag Hat'khiyah, a Jewish celebration of the resurrection of Yeshua the Messiah, stressing its essential Jewish nature and significance, as well as its historical reliability. We meet at Philippe Park in Safety Harbor, on the hill near shelter #7. Please dress casually, and bring a blanket or chair to sit on.

Hill near Shelter #7

An Important Note

We recently learned that we need to replace part of the sanctuary air conditioning system as soon as possible. The total cost is $16,800. Please help us meet this urgent need. Whatever you contribute will be greatly appreciated.

Rabbi John

Volunteers Sought

We have a few openings in the volunteer work here at the congregation:

- ◆ Greeters
- ◆ Torah Assistants
- ◆ Running Sound
- ◆ Running Video / Livestream
- ◆ Shabbat School

If you're interested, let us know on a Friday night and we'll get you set up.

Passover begins at sundown on Monday, April 22nd, the night of the first seder. If you think that you may be alone on Passover this year, we have a solution: take the initiative and gather a few friends together and celebrate the festival. It is a great mitzvah to host a seder in one's home. Whether you're hosting or attending a seder this year, these two webinars will help you prepare, appreciate and enjoy the holiday more fully.

Dr. Patrice leads a webinar called "Leavening: Take It or Leave It? How to apply rules for food at Passover in your home." This session also covers the special spiritual insights derived from understanding the role and use of leaven around Passover time.

Yeshua: At the Center of the Last Seder

vimeo.com/529171923

Rabbi John leads a webinar called "Yeshua: At the Center of the Last Seder." This session deals with the many incredible links between Yeshua and the Passover seder, both the last one he celebrated and the ones we celebrate today. You'll want to have a haggadah in hand as John leads us through the seder; the free Maxwell House haggadah is preferred.
